Specier-Vanished Faith in Mr. Glad tone Among Educated Liberals letter to New York Evening Post The well to-co c asses in England have for the moment gone over to conservation. This is the promine at fact of he situation and the true result of the electoral returns, to deed, hartily show the full strength of the doc uant conservative sentiment. The tory we in the towns is belambed by the radical vote it the countres, and what is of more consequent bundreds of man who either voted theral or did not note at all, have become more than half con servative in their hearts. There were many lib majorii my emject is to make armin in a catter which have brought about a condition of opin on as noteworthy as any which have wit nessed during my lifetime. They will not be discovered by yree the most candid of partisans, but they pre not hard for any one to find who

This want of har most groduces two results. Radicals like Mr. Chattherian demand changes which correspond with the theory o' a democratic constitution, but which of that really surver to the wishes of the most in insufal classes. Well-to-do ps sons, whether rettlers themselves librals by toriss, re-

Of the hasco in Egypt it is pair tal and needless to say much (ordo) is death and the whole train of events which led to it are known to all the word, and will not seen be forgotten by large be lies of Englishmen. Last of all, their Irish, policy had not conciliated ireland. Whap it became known that not a single liberal was returned for an irish consil uency, the political fathice of Mr. (ladshow? Irist, policy, which had long been suspected by observers, became visible to every one. Let if he noted that I neither mean to assert nor to mply that for the whole of these failures he liberal cabinet was responsible. A later generation will recognize the inmease ser

Ingland believe that it is favorable to some ferm of home rule. If this belief be well founded, then it is hardly possible to use han gange grave enough to destribe the evil done fo the whole I nited kingdom by the mode in which the leader of the literal party has suffered his opinion or a matter of vital importance to be irregularly revealed. If, on the other hand, the general belief be unknowed, why is it that he constant of the regularly revealed if, on the other hand, the general belief be unknowed, why is it that he constant of the resulting the second of the revealing error. Lord Hartington has not half his lead it is command of language, but Lord Harting ton has not half his lead it is command of language, but Lord Harting ton has been position perfectly clear. This Mr. Indicators country of will, were it not for a hazy recollection that years ago, when an impertinent analic asked Mr. Glad stone whether he was not a homan Catholic, Mr. Indicator could belief leave the question alone nor drepose of it by a lain answer. Nor will Americans have forgotten the difficulty there has been found in defining antisfactorily Mr. Gladstone's attated toward conthern secession known that all the unconscious mystification (for sect it may fairly be be laved to be) arises from interportale an the great streaman's character with an enough like country. But if An orican critics will concern for Mr. Incept or Mr. Seward to have commanded it is faith of the North, or, for that matter, of the South either, I he had from any peculiar turn of mind concessed is it would have been form in the production of the continuations or reconclusive details of authorita ive annotes that he concerning the great stream continuation granting to the South everything which he Confederates could demand except promisil independence—such a critic will underested by a heigh is convergence.

An Amusing Instance on a Republican () Trying to Rotain a Tedaral Office WASHINGTON, Inn I .- The executive session of the renate this after non was the most enter taining that has been h ld this congress, and the friends of James G. Bleune were particularly infriends of James & Bleue were particularly interested in some disclosures that were made in connection with the no function of W A Beach the confriguration of ex-Collector Armstrang was "accledificially" answered. It is the only inquiry that Setrettry Manning has responde to, and it is chemical at the treasony department that it was me by mistake. It is concelly probable, however, that Secretary Manting feels may remores about the "acclident," and up to date the gull; man has not been repfrimunded.

When the case of Mi., Slack was reached senator warmer Miller, who is a messiber of the finance committee and Ind the case in charge, sent to the tierk's desk the communication from the secretary of the treason, which roads as

It appears that Mr Spriggs, after rending these communications forwarded them to Sed-retary Manning for haidinfermation. But Arm strong's protestations were useless. The presi-dent did not care to mike such a bargain as wus proposed, mainly to rewart the political treach-ery of which Armstrong con essed thusself gui-ty. Armstrong's exitans were written to the wrong man, and after hearing the letters read the senate decided that the president's reasons for suspending him were sufficient. There are severa similar cases before the senate in execu-tive session, and they will at receive the same sort of treatment.
